

A relational database is a database based tabular data and links between data entities or concepts.

A relational database is organised into tables. Each table should correspond to one entity or concept.

ACCOUNT_ID	BALANCE
1	10.000
2	12.546
3	8761
...	...